

Dr John Westwood Niesche Clinical Consultant - Surgeon

MBBS
FRCS
FRACS

Dr John Niesche graduated MBBS from the University of Sydney and after Internship at Sydney Hospital was appointed as Demonstrator in Anatomy at Sydney University. He trained in General Surgery in Australia and the U.K. obtaining FRCS and FRACS.

John was appointed Senior Registrar at Sydney Hospital and later Visiting Surgeon to Sydney Hospital, the Royal Hospital for Women and St Luke's Private Hospital, and Visiting Vascular Surgeon to the Prince of Wales and Prince of Wales Private Hospitals and Eastern Heart Clinic. He was Chairman of the Board of Directors of St Luke's Care from 1992 to 2002.

Dr John Niesche has been actively involved in Clinical Examination and Undergraduate Teaching; as Clinical Supervisor in Surgery at Sydney Hospital/ University of Sydney, and later Clinical Tutor in surgery at Prince of Wales Hospital/University of New South Wales. He has been a clinical consultant at the Sydney Breast Clinic since 1984.