

Jill Miller Mammographer

Diploma in Medical Radiation Science,
Certificate of General Nursing,
Certificate of Clinical Proficiency in Mammography

Jill Miller is a consultant mammographer having worked in the area of mammography since 1994 and joined Sydney Breast Clinic in 2015.

Having commenced in 2003 in the position of the BreastScreen NSW State Radiographer and Manager of the Screen Reading Centre.

During this role she was part of the team working to implement digital mammography in BreastScreen NSW. Additionally, she was part of the team which formulated and developed the BreastScreen NSW Breast Clinical Education Program (BICEP) and was a member of the Clinical Advisory Committee for BreastScreen Australia.

Jill was involved in the development of the Graduate Diploma of Mammography course through BreastScreen Australia and Charles Sturt University. Jill is actively teaching and instructing mammography students as well as working in a clinical role.